

BOEKZAAL OCTOBER 1748. LETTER NIEUWS. NEWSLETTER 2021 UITRECHT.

Board News

Despite the challenges of the pandemic, the board was able to meet in the Spring and Fall of 2021. In fact, the board expanded and welcomed new board members, Dr. Kyle Dieleman (Trinity Christian College), Dr. Gayle Doornbos (Redemption Seminary), Dr. Fritz Harms (Covenant United Reformed Church, Colorado Springs), and Dr. Jessica Joustra (Redeemer University). In addition, international advisory members were appointed, and include, Dr. Roelof Bisschop (Member Dutch Parliament, Board member Stichting Studie Nadere Reformatie), Dr. George Harinck (Vrije Universiteit Amsterdam, The Neo-Calvinism Research Institute), Dr. Jan van de Kamp (Vrije Universiteit Amsterdam | Theologische Universiteit Apeldoorn), and Dr. Herman Selderhuis (Theologische Universiteit Apeldoorn, REFORC).

New Projects and Publications

The board and committee of publications are discussing future projects, including the translation and publication of the Original Acta of the Synod of Dort. The Spring '22 board meeting will provide further direction of new translation projects.

A delightful moment was celebrated with the publication of volume 3 of Petrus van Mastricht, Theoretical-practical theology. The translation, editing, and publication of more volumes is on schedule for 2022 and 2023.

New Website

A new website was published <https://www.dutchreformedtranslation.org> providing relevant information about the society, its work and publications. Since the launch of the new website (Fall '21) the society welcomed twenty-two new members!

Dutch Reformed Translation Society

The Dutch Reformed Translation Society sponsors translations into English and facilitates the publication and dissemination of historically important Dutch Reformed theological and religious literature originally published in the 16th – 20th century
